Citation: A topical approach to lifespan development ...

Lifespan development explores how we change and grow from conception to death. This field of psychology is studied by developmental psychologists. They view development as a lifelong process that can be studied scientifically across three developmental domains: physical, cognitive development, and psychosocial.

What Is Lifespan Development? | Introduction to Psychology

Aims of the course: Psychology 340 is a survey course in human development. It takes a life-span perspective, which means we're trying to cover prenatal development, infancy, toddlerhood, early childhood, middle childhood, adolescence, and the various periods of adulthood--all in one 3-hour course.
