The Start of Me and You by Emery Lord - Goodreads

The Start of Me and You is a really sweet contemporary YA romance. Yes, it was emotional and started with a really heavy event (the death of our MC's boyfriend), but it was also funny and light hearted at times. The story revolves around Paige and her journey to find herself again after the death of her boyfriend.

In determining whether to say 'he and I', or 'he and me', just mentally omit the 'he'. Clearly one would not say me am going to the market, so it has to be 'I'. But one would say It belongs to my father and me, since 'I' am no longer the subject of the sentence, and the accusative pronoun is called for.
